

YHWH'S SET APART FEAST DAYS

These are YHWH's appointed feasts, the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times ... Leviticus 23

The Word of YHWH lists (7) Seven festivals to be celebrated each year.

The first is the Passover, a memorial of the sacrifice of Yahushua for our sins. This is also when we renew our agreement to come under the blood of Yahushua, the perfect Passover Lamb for the forgiveness of our SINS. (THIS IS NOT EASTER, the Man made PAGAN holiday of JESUS, that began by PAGAN's, worshipping the GOD of EASTRE, the Goddess of fertility, i.e...the bunny rabbits and eggs.

In the Torah (the (5) first five books of Moses), there are (7) seven set apart festivals instituted by YHWH:

The Feast of Passover (Pesach) - celebrated the night when the angel passed over the Hebrew households in Egypt. Along with Yahushua freely giving his Set apart Blood as the Sacrifice to cover SIN forever.

The Feast of Unleavened Bread- commemorated the first 7 days of the Exodus when the Hebrews left Egypt in such a hurry that they did not have time to add yeast to their dough. (Communion, Due this in remembrance Him and his sacrifice of his Flesh (his Body) and his shed Blood (LIFE)).

The Day of First Fruits (The Omer) the 17th day of Nisan, was a celebration of the harvest, when a sheaf representing the very first of the harvest was waved before YHWH as a symbolic gesture that dedicated the coming harvest to Him.

Yahushua rose from the dead on the Feast of First-fruits. His resurrection was like a wave offering presented to the Father as the first-fruits of the harvest to come at the end of the age.

The Feast of Weeks - also called the Pentecost (Shavuot). It marked the end of the harvest and offering of first fruits. (Yahushua was the FIRST fruit, and the Spirit of YHWH was given to MANkind).

The Feast of Trumpets (Yom Teruah) - the blowing of a ram's horn, or shofar, to call the people to prepare for the Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur). Later this day became the Jewish New Year (Rosh Hashanah).

When the sound of the Trumpets blows from Heaven, we know our Savior is on his way back to get his bride

The Day of Atonement (Yom Kippur) - the most solemn day of the year. On this day, the High Priest sacrificed Sin offerings to atone all the sins of the people and entered the Most Set apart Place to offer incense.

The Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkot) - celebrated the completion of the great fall harvest and remembered the Hebrews in the Exodus living in tents for 40 years.

The (7) seven annual days are annual Sabbaths; they are set apart occasions and commanded assemblies of YHWH 's people (JEW and CHOSEN Gentile). These days are Set apart by YHWH.

YAH commands His people to assemble for worship and to learn about Him and His plan. His command goes further than worship only; it includes fellowship, rejoicing and Praise together in YAH 's NAME. Leviticus 23:1-4; Deuteronomy 14:23-26; Nehemiah 8:1-12

Sadly, most who profess to be Christians today do not observe YAH 's Sacred festivals, typically calling them "Jewish" feasts and claiming they are obsolete. Yet celebrating the MAN made Pagan Holiday's of Easter and Christmas tagging them to JESUS, supposedly HE is the reason for the season and he is since JESUS and SANTA CLAUS were created around the same time.

YAH said these are His feasts and He commands that they shall be observed, even in the New Testament. YAH defined these celebrations as His festivals, or "the feasts of YHWH" Leviticus 23:2-4.

Because believers do not observe these Set apart festivals as YAH commands, they do not understand their meaning and how they are for a Set apart purpose to reveal the coming of the MESSIAH:

- 1. Passover (Lamb of YHWH, shedding of his sinless blood for the remission of SIN)
- 2. Feasts of Unleavened Bread (representing SIN and Sacred Communion)

3. The Day of First Fruits (The Omer) Yahushua rose from the dead on the Feast of First-fruits.

4. Pentecost (time when YAH gave MANkind his Spirit)

5. Feast of Trumpets (Blowing of the trumpet/ shofar) announcing the return of Yahushua to gather his Chosen (Rapture).

6. The Day of Atonement (Yahushua's 2nd coming as our High Priest, our Messiah)

7. The Feast of Tabernacles (Represents the millennial reign of Yahushua and is a time of celebration and rejoicing in YAHWEH for all Nations)

Obeying YAH 's commands and observing his Set apart days, gives believers a better understanding. The fear of YAHWEH is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding.

His praise endures forever. Psalm 111:10
